Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
6th December 1864.

No. 46. Read the following letter from T. I. P. HARRIS, Esq., Civil Judge, Trichinopoly; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Trichinopoly, 17th November 1864, No. 301.

I have the honor to submit the following for the consideration of His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

2. The permanent Sheristadar on the establishment of this Court was, under orders* from the High Court, appointed to officiate as District Moonsiff of Conad, subject to his appearing and passing at the late Special Test Examination.

* July 1863.

3. With the permission of the then Acting Collector, Mr. Walhouse, H. Vencat Row, Head Clerk on the Collector's establishment, has officiated as Sheristadar of this Court, and will continue to do so until the result of the next Special Test Examination is known, the permanent incumbent having failed in passing as District Moonsiff at the last examination, but having been allowed to continue to officiate as Moonsiff until the next test takes place.

4. The Civil Paymaster has passed the Officiating Sheristadar's salary for 15 months past, but he now declines auditing the same for the last month, on the ground that his name is not entered in the published list of passed candidates for the grade of Sheristadars.

5. Vencat Row, however, having been entertained by me as a temporary measure, I am doubtful whether the sanction of Government is necessary for the Civil Paymaster to audit his pay. Should it be required, I request that the Civil Paymaster may be authorized to audit Vencat Row's salary as Acting Sheristadar, until the result of the next Special Test Examination be known.

No. 47. ORDER THEREON, 6th December 1864, No. 1742.

The Governor in Council cannot comply with the request preferred in the foregoing letter.

2. Among the persons who have passed the Special Test for the office of Sheristadar in the Courts, as many as three are English Writers on Mr. Harris' establishment.
