Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
7th December 1864.

Read the following papers:—

No. 94. From B. BROOKS, Esq., Assistant Registrar and Deputy Clerk of the Crown, High Court, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 2nd December 1864.

I have the sanction of the Chief Justice to address you, with reference to Extract of Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, of 18th November 1864, No. 1653, communicated to his Lordship, and respectfully to solicit the attention of the Madras Government to the terms of the Despatch of the Secretary of State for India, embodied in those Proceedings, as to the amount authorized to be disbursed to me.

2. According to the representation, which the Madras Government has done me the honor to make to the Secretary of State for India, upon my Memorial for compensation (for which I thank it), he has been pleased to award to me a sum per mensem, which, together with my salaries, as Assistant Registrar and Deputy Clerk of the Crown, is to be equivalent to Rupees 870 per mensem, my official income previous to the revision of the High Court establishment; but on the face of the Despatch, there is, I most respectfully submit, a small discrepency as to what that sum is, assuming the Secretary of State for India to have intended to make up the amount to Rupees 870.

3. The whole scope of the order is, as I respectfully submit, to give to me the difference between my present aggregate salary of Rupees 475 and Rupees 870, at date of revision; in which case the sum to be disbursed to me, as a personal allowance, is Rupees 200 plus 195. I therefore most respectfully solicit the Madras Government to be pleased to pass an order to the Audit and Account Departments in accordance with the effect of that Despatch, as now humbly and respectfully submitted.

Presidency Department.

The undersigned has the honor to inquire from what date the personal allowance granted to Mr. B. Brooks, by the Secretary of State for India, in the Despatch communicated with Government Order, No. 1653, dated 18th ultimo, should commence to be drawn. Mr. Brooks, in a bill recived this day, claims it from 1st June 1863.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
1*st December* 1864.

(Signed) R. W. LODWICK,
Civil Paymaster.

To the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George.

No. 96. ORDER THEREON, 7th December 1864, No. 1764.

The Civil Paymaster is authorized to disburse the personal allowance of Rupees 200 per mensem, granted to Mr. Brooks, from the 1st June 1863, the date on which the revision of the High Court establishment took effect.

2. The Governor in Council directs that Mr. Brooks be furnished with a copy of the letter addressed to the Secretary of State, under date the 25th July last; from which he will observe that the Madras Government did not recommend to the Secretary of State the award to him of "a sum per mensem, which, together with his salaries as Assistant Registrar and Deputy Clerk of the Crown, is to be equivaof the letter addressed to lent to Rupees 870 per mensem, his official income previous to the revision of the High Court establishment;" and that, therefore, his inference that the whole scope of the order of the Secretary of State is to give to him the difference between his present salary of Rupees 475 and Rupees 870, is incorrect.
