Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 7th December 1864.

Read the following papers:—

No. 102. From D. F. CARMICHAEL, Esq., Magistrate of Vizagapatam, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Vizagapatam, 27th October 1864, No. 356.

The Civil Surgeon reports that the establishment of one male and two female Warders and two Peons is not sufficient to guard the Lunatics in the Asylum here, in addition to controlling them. These unfortunate beings are generally very noisy and occasionally violent; and one of them made his escape the other day. It is therefore proposed that a third peon may be allowed.

2. In supporting this proposal, I beg to state that the Asylum was till lately guarded by two Police Constables, who were debited to the Jail Department. It will be seen, on a reference to the correspondence about this Asylum, that lunatics were formerly lodged in the Jail; and that, on this proving inconvenient and being in other respects disapproved of, the Government directed that they should be removed to another building, to be rented by the Magistrate, and that the expenses of the new arrangement should be included in the Jail Contingent Bill. Subsequently, a larger house was found necessary, and sanction granted for a small separate establishment. The Police guard, however, was continued, till disallowed recently by the Inspector General of Police, on the ground that "the duty of guarding such Hospitals is not properly Police duty, and no provision has been made for it in the Budget."
