No. 172. Read the following letter from H. E. SULLIVAN, Esq., Acting Civil Judge of Salem, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Salem, 10th December 1864, No. 22.

My predecessor Mr. Cherry, on the post becoming vacant, appointed provisionally the Sheristadar of his Court, Daivonoigam Pillai, to preside over the Moonsiff's Court at Salem, and Cundasamy Pillai, Head Writer of the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court, to act as Sheristadar of the Civil Court.

2. The High Court refused to sanction the appointment of Daivonoigam Pillai as he had not passed the special test; but in their Proceedings, dated 3rd December 1864, copy of which is enclosed, recorded their opinion that he should be permitted to draw pay as Moonsiff from the date of his provisional appointment, till relieved by the officer who has since been appointed. They also considered that the Ministerial officers of the Civil Court who had obtained temporary promotion, during the time that Daivonoigam Pillai was acting as Moonsiff, should be permitted to draw the pay of the grades in which they had temporarily officiated.

3. You will observe from the enclosed copy of a Memorandum from the Civil Paymaster that neither the Acting Moonsiff, nor the Acting Sheristadar, can draw the pay of their provisional appointments without the express sanction of Government; and this, I have the honor to request you will be good enough, under the circumstances, to obtain. The Moonsiff of Dindigul has been transferred to Salem, and, on his joining his appointment, Daivonoigam Pillai and Cundasawmy Pillai will revert to their permanent situations.

P. S.—I have also to request similar sanction for the temporary employment of Raja Gopal Moodeliar as translator in the Court during the time that Daivonoigam Pillai has been acting as Moonsiff.

Proceedings of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, dated 3rd December 1864.

Read letter dated the 26th ultimo, from the Acting Civil Judge of Salem, nominating Mr. Misquita for the vacant office of the Salem Moonsiff, and recommending that Daivonoigam Pillai, who has been presiding over the Court, be permitted to continue in office until relieved by the permanent incumbent, and that sanction for his pay and that of the Ministerial servants of the Civil Court may be given.

1. The Judges sanction the appointment of Mr. Misquita, District Moonsiff of Dindigul, to to be District Moonsiff of Salem.

2. They are clearly of opinion that the Sheristadar of the Civil Court, Daivonoigam Pillai, should draw the full pay of a 3rd Class District Moonsiff, from the date of his provisional appointment to the charge of the Court at Salem by the late Civil Judge, until the arrival of Mr. Misquita. The pay of the Ministerial servants who obtained promotion under the provisional arrangement should be regulated on the same principal.

14th December 1864.

No. 79.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

Fixed Department.

Before Daivonoigam's salary as District Moonsiff of Salem, under the order of the High Court, dated 3rd instant, is claimed, Mr. Sullivan is requested to furnish this Department with information whether that individual has passed the prescribed examination for District Moonsiff, as otherwise he will not be able to draw any pay as District Moonsiff, unless specially permitted to do so by Government. The party who may be appointed to act as Sheristadar in his room must also have passed the special test before he can draw any pay as Sheristadar.
