Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

13th February 1864.

No. 76. Read the following letter from J. W. CHERRY, Esq., Civil Judge of Salem ; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Salem, 10th February 1864, No. 3.

Adverting to the Notification of Government under date the 11th November 1863, published in the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 17th idem, page 878, directing the abolition of the District Moonsiff's Courts at Yedapady and Darampoory, and of the Additional Moonsiff's Court of Salem, an application was made by me to the High Court for the continuance of these Courts until the 31st December 1863, in view to the arrears of work in these Courts may be brought up by that time;
orders were at the same time sent on the subject to the different Officers presiding over these Courts.

2. The Judges of the High Court have accordingly approved of my recommendation, as would appear, by the accompanying copy of their letter to my address.

3. Pay Abstracts for the salaries due to the Officers, whose Courts have been ordered to be abolished for the months of November and December last, were submitted to the Civil Paymaster, but they were returned unaudited, for the reasons stated in the copy of the accompanying Memorandum from that Officer.

4. The three Moonsiffs in question, together with their establishments, were actually on duty up to the 1st January last, on which date the abolition of their Courts took effect.

5. I therefore request the Government will direct either a further notification to be given in the Fort Saint George Gazette that the said Courts were abolished from the 1st January 1864, or that the Civil Paymaster be directed to pass the full salaries of the different Officers concerned up to the 31st December last.

From C. F. CHAMIER, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side;
to J. W. CHERRY, Esq., Civil Judge of Salem.

I am directed to inform you, in reply to your letter dated the 27th ultimo, that the Judges approve of your proposal to dispense with the services of Cooppa Row, District Moonsiff of Yedapady, and Sabapathy, District Moonsiff of Darampoory, on the abolition of their Courts; both those Officers having completed the full period of service for pension.

2. They also approve of your carrying the measure into effect from the 1st proximo.

(True Copy.)

Civil Judge.
