Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department.
18th February 1864.

No. 118. Read the following letter from J. BOHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails, to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 5th February 1864, No. 551.

I have the honor to submit, for the orders of Government, the question now raised by the Sessions Judge in charge of the Jail at Nellore, as to the pay to which the Nakh Jailer, a native, is entitled while acting as Jailer during a vacancy in the office.

2. The Government Extract from the Minutes of Consultation, 25th June 1857, ruled that the increased allowance of Rupees 50 was payable only to the class to whom it had been sanctioned, namely, "qualified Europeans," and that in all other cases a smaller sum than 50 Rupees must be disbursed.

3. Under the former rules the pay of Jailer was only Rupees 20, the present pay of the Deputy.

4. The Government do not, in the order quoted, seem to have intended that the locum tenens should receive only the former rate of pay; and I would now submit, in reference to the case in point, and similar cases that the sum of Rupees 40 per mensem be fixed for those to whom the order of the Supreme Government, sanctioning the increase, does not strictly apply.

No. 119. Omsa return, 18th February 1864, No. 212.

The Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the adoption of the rule proposed in the foregoing letter, viz., that at all Jails, where the salary of the Jailer is fixed at Rupees (50) fifty a month, the Nakh or Deputy Jailer should draw only Rupees (40) forty, or Rupees 10 less, when appointed to act as Jailer, during a full vacancy of the office. The entire salary of the Nakh Jailer will, under this arrangement, be available for the person doing duty for him.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
