*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
19th February 1864.*

Read the following papers:—

No. 127. From J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails; to J. L. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Accountant General, Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 5th February 1864, No. 546.

I would beg the favor of your immediately instructing officers in charge of District Treasuries to furnish advances to the amount of two months' Jail Contingent Bills, as proposed in my letter to Government of the 16th December, and that where officers may be desirous of purchasing after harvest the full year's supply of grain, the cost of the same may be advanced. There is on the part of some officers great delay in forwarding Contingent Bills, but the inconvenience from want of sufficient advance may be felt by all, and induces a system of purchasing on credit which prevents Contractors from coming forward, and compels report to those dealers who are obliged to wait for their money.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) J. ROHDE,
Inspector General of Jails.

To the Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George.

Submitted with reference to letter of 16th December 1863, No. 472.

Referred to the Accountant General for early report.

Fort Saint George,
20th February 1864.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

No. 128. From J. L. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Acting Accountant General; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 12th February 1864, No. 578.

Bank and Adjustment Department.

In acknowledging the receipt of your Memorandum, dated the 9th instant, referring to me for report copy of a letter from the Inspector General of Jails to this office, No. 546 of the 5th idem, I have the honor to forward copy of my reply* to him, and to state that that officer can judge of the wants of his Department better than I can. As a matter of account, it is desirable to keep the advances as low as possible, but it is for Government to decide whether, as a matter of expediency, it is desirable that larger advances should be made.

From J. L. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Acting Accountant General; to the Inspector General of Jails, Ootacamund, dated Fort Saint George, 11th February 1864, No. 5503.

Bank and Adjustment Department.

In acknowledging your letter, No. 546, dated 5th instant, I have the honor to observe that under the Order of Government of 8th August 1863, No. 1280, Judicial Department, this office, by a notification dated 11th August 1863, No. 23, instructed the Treasury officers to make advances to officers in charge of Jails to meet their contingent expenses agreeably to the table appended to the above order. If the amounts which were fixed on your suggestion be considered insufficient, you should obtain the sanction of Government for the necessary increase required. This office cannot authorize the Treasury officers to advance sums without the sanction of Government.

2. The delay on the part of some officers in forwarding Contingent Bills should be severely noticed by you, so as to prevent any future dilatoriness on their part.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) J. MACKEY,
Asst. Secy. to the Government.

Forwarded for information to the Chief Secretary to Government.

No. 129. ORDER TREASURY, 19th February 1864, No. 217.

Communicated to the Inspector General of Jails, who is requested to state whether he considers it desirable that the officers in charge of Jails should be furnished with larger advances than those mentioned under date the 8th August last, and if so, to what amount in each case.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

Encl. J. Tallich.
