Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 22nd February 1864.

No. 148. Read the following letter from Lieutenant Colonel W. J. WILSON, Commissioner of Police; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 9th January 1864, No. 2.

With reference to the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department, dated 9th November 1863, No. 5499, sanctioning an increase of pay to certain writers of this establishment communicated in Order of Government, dated 21st ultimo, No. 1989, Judicial Department, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to solicit the sanction of Government for my being allowed to draw the increased rate of salaries retrospectively from 1st April 1863.

2. The proposed increase was provided for in my Budget Estimate for 1863-64 and sanctioned by the Government of India.

No. 149. ORDER THEREON, 22nd February 1864, No. 226.

His Excellency the Governor in Council is unable to give retrospective effect to the sanction of the Government of India in the case of the servants referred to. The date from which the increased rate of pay was to be allowed should have been specified in the original application of the Commissioner of Police.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary.

From D. M. M. M. M.

I do not think that retrospective offence can be given to this sanction of the Govt of India, notwithstanding the Budget provision which was made without even the sanction of this Govt.

H. E. the Governor in Council is unable to give retrospective effect to the sanction of the Govt. of India in the case of the servants referred to. The date from which the increased rate of pay was to be allowed should have been specified in the original application of the Commissioner of Police.
