Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 23rd February 1864.

No. 155. Read the following letter from D. F. CARMICHAEL, Esq., Agent to the Governor, Vizagapatam; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Camp Parvatipur, 6th February 1864, No. 22.

I have the honor, with reference to Section 394 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, to submit copy of sentence in Session Case No. 1 of 1864, Agency file, and to suggest that the lunatic, Buddi Chilakaya, be kept in safe custody in the Zillah Jail, whither he has been forwarded by me.

2. It is true there is a Lunatic Asylum at Vizagapatam, but this person is occasionally extremely violent from indulgence in a long course of brutalizing drugs, and now that homicidal mania has developed itself it may be considered safer, at any rate for the present, to consign him to a Jail.

3. Copy of the evidence will be sent to the Civil Surgeon who is in charge both of Asylum and Jail.

Sentence in Session Case No. 1 of 1864, Agency file, dated Camp Parvatipur, 6th February 1864.

The Court concurring with the Assessors finds that B. Chilakaya committed the act charged, but acquits him, upon the ground that at the time he is charged to have committed the offence of murder he was by reason of unsoundness of mind incapable of knowing the nature of the act charged, or that he was doing what was wrong or contrary to law; and the Court directs, under Section 394 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, that B. Chilakaya be kept in safe custody in the Zillah Jail of Vizagapatam pending the order of the local Government, to whom the Court will make a report of the case.

(True Copy.)
