Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 26th February 1864.

No. 195. Read the following letter from W. ROBINSON, Esq., Inspector General of Madras Police; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 30th January 1864, No. 207.

Audit Department.

In the month of December last, as the Government is well aware, I went on important duty to the Northern Districts, proceeding from Madras to Gopaulpore in the Steamer "Pensang."

2. On that occasion I took with me a clerk, a peon, a servant, and two horses. I also allowed my clerk to bring a servant to prepare his food, as his own time would be fully engaged with me.

3. I considered that in the above establishment I was, with great moderation, observing the spirit of the Government Order, No. 16, dated 14th January 1863, Marine Department.

4. The Civil Paymaster, however, objects to the charge for both servants and horses. I would therefore solicit the Government to define the term "suitable accommodation," and also to point out the circumstances under which the above quoted Government Order is applicable.

5. I will only remark that without horses or servants my presence at Gopaulpore would have been of little use.

No. 196. ORDER THEREON, 26th February 1864, No. 251.

The Governor in Council authorizes the Civil Paymaster to pass the charges referred to in the foregoing letter. It has been ascertained that the charges in question, amounting to Rupees 412-8-0, are less than the Inspector General would be entitled to draw in the event of a mileage allowance of eight Annas being sanctioned on the occasion of his travelling by Steamer as recommended by Government in their letter of the 21st April last. The term "suitable accommodation," used in the Order of the 14th January 1863, referred to cabin accommodation being provided for the officer himself. It did not refer to accommodation for horses or servants. The attention of the Government of India will now be called to paragraph 3 of the letter from this Government under date the 21st April. Meanwhile, whenever the Inspector General of Police may have occasion to travel by sea he will submit a Bill of his actual expenses for the sanction of Government.
