Referred for the consideration and report of the Controller of Military Finance.

No. 201. From Major J. G. TOUCH, for Controller of Military Finance, Fort Saint George; to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort Saint George, dated 18th February 1864, B.

I have the honor to return the Adjutant General's letter of the 12th January 1864, No. 22, with enclosure, referred for report under your despatch of the 13th January 1864, and to state that, under G. O. C. C. 14th February 1859, No. 12, the Andaman Sepoys Corps in respect of butting pension, leave of absence, &c., having been placed on the same footing as the Pegu Police Corps, as defined by G. O. C. 23d March 1858, No. 117, and Private Appanah No. 22 of the Andaman Corps having, it is reported, died at Port Blair on the 17th September 1860, the nominated heir for pension, Mungamah, the widow, is entitled to a donation equal to six months' pay of the deceased Private, if the same has not been already given.

2. The pay of the Corps was adjusted in the Civil Department.

Transferred to the Judicial Department with letter No. 170 of 1864.

Fort Saint George,

No. 201.

Open minutes, 26th February 1864, No. 250.

Resolved that the Adjutant General be requested, with the permission of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, to cause an investigation to be made, as regards the claim preferred by the father of Appanah, deceased Private of the late Andaman Sepoys Corps, with special reference to the circumstances that the widow of the deceased was his nominated heir to pension.

(Signed) A. J. ARDUTHNOT,

Chief Secretary.

Memo.

The families of men of the Andaman Corps were granted passage to Port Blair, with the Corps, but even if Mungamah did accompany her husband, it does not appear how payment of any Death Donation could have been made to her at Port Blair under the arrangement made by the Govt. of India for investigating & paying off claims of heirs.

The present papers do not show whether Mungamah is living. In cases of Pensions (Military) the line of succesion & the limitation as to heirs are:-

1. Son none
2. Widow none
3. Daughter none
4. Father entitled
5. Mother

In the event of the death of the nominated heir, the pension ~~descends to the~~ may be granted to the next in the line of descent whether nominated or not. The Register shows that Appanah had only 2 heirs to Pension - Widow & Father.
