Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 21st March 1864.

No. 234. Read the following letter from J. R. KINDERSLEY, Esq., Acting Session Judge, Rajahmundry; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, Madras, dated Rajahmundry, 11th March 1864, No. 9.

Under Section 390 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, I have the honor to report that at a Court of Session held yesterday at Rajahmundry, one Adapaka Ramaya, charged with murder and attempt at suicide, was, upon a preliminary trial, held under Section 389 of the same Code, found to be incapable of making his defence by reason of his being of unsound mind.

2. The Zillah Surgeon has had the man under close observation for several weeks in the Jail at Rajahmundry, and has observed in him a restlessness and absence of sleep and of appetite, with a constant desire to see his mother, which convince the Zillah Surgeon that the accused is not in his right mind, and that he is incapable of making a proper defence.

3. The accused, being charged with murder, remains in confinement in the jail at this station, until the pleasure of Government be known; and I have now the honor to request instructions as to his disposal. At the same time I have the honor to state that the Zillah Surgeon expects him shortly to recover sufficiently to be tried.

No. 235. ORDER THEREON, 21st March 1864, No. 403.

The Governor in Council directs that the lunatic, Adapaka Ramaya, be detained in the Zillah Jail of Rajahmundry, until he is in a fit state to be placed on his trial.
