I have the honor to request that you will do me the favor to obtain the sanction of Government for the sum of Rupees five, as per receipt, being the amount already disbursed for the services of a Portuguese Interpreter for two days; which was rendered necessary from the fact of the witness being unable to give her deposition in any of the Native languages in a case of importance, which my colleague, Mr. Campbell, was obliged to commit for trial at the late Criminal Sessions.

2. The charge was included in the Contingent Bill of this Court, which the Civil Paymaster has refused to pass in the absence of the special sanction of Government.

No 237. ORDER THEREON, 21st March 1864, No. 404.
