Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 12th January 1864.

No. 70. Read the following letter from L. C. INNES, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Ootacamund; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 8th January 1864, No. 8.

I have the honor to enclose, for the information of the Honorable the Governor in Council, copy of a letter to my address from the Deputy Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, dated the 24th December last, and request you will have the goodness to obtain for me their sanction for the charge actually and necessarily incurred in the sum of Rupees (17) seventeen, in the renewal of the old silver badges of the late Sub-Court Deloyets of this place, as will be seen in the Bill herewith appended, and which is required to be returned to attach to the Contingent Bill for December 1863.

2. It became necessary on the institution of the Civil and Session Court, that the badges of the Peons attached to the late Sub-Court, the inscription on which indicated that the wearers were Deloyets of the Sub-Court, should be altered.

3. An order from the Board of Revenue of the 28th November 1859 requires that new badges should be of the shape and size of the pattern that accompanied the order. I had the pattern followed, but did not refer to the order, and so failed to observe that the order directed that future badges should be made of brass; and as the old badges were very small, and of a totally different shape from that prescribed, it was also necessary that in re-making them of silver, some silver should be added to that of the old badges.

4. The Peons of all the Courts to which I have hitherto been attached, and, I believe, of all Courts, have silver badges, and the economy of having these made up of brass unfortunately did not occur to me.

No. 71. ORDER THEREON, 12th January 1864, No. 45.

The Governor in Council sanctions the charge of Rupees (17) seventeen incurred in renewing the badges referred to in the foregoing letter.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
