Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 13th April 1864.

Read the following papers:—

No. 153. Abstract of Petition from KANAKAMMAH, an inhabitant of Madras, dated 6th February 1864, No. 425.

Brings to notice that her son Ramasawmy Rajah, who was Peon in the Madras Police, attacked a gang of robbers and fell a victim to them; that in consideration of his service a pension of three Rupees was granted both to her and her husband for their maintenance; that her husband who was drawing the pension died, and she applied twice to the present Commissioner for the continuance of the same to her, but no reply was given to her.

2. Prays for an order for the continuance of the said pension to her.

No. 425.

Forwarded to the Commissioner of Police for report.

(By Order.)

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
29th February 1864.

(Signed) W. H. KERR,
Deputy Secretary to Government.

No. 154. From Lieutenant Colonel W. J. WILSON, Commissioner of Police; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 2nd March 1864, No. 34.

Petition Department, No. 425 of 1864, dated 29th Feb. 1864.

I have the honor to return the petition received with the order noted in the margin.

2. The petitioner Kanakammah is the mother of a Police peon named Ramasawmy, who was killed on the 18th November 1852, in the execution of his duty when endeavouring to apprehend certain gang robbers in Washermanspettah. Mr. Elliot, at that time Superintendent of Police, addressed Government on the subject on the 7th May 1853, and recommended that a pension of four Rupees a month should be granted to Varadarajoo, the father of the deceased peon.

3. On the 4th October 1853, an order was passed granting the said Varadarajoo a life-pension of three Rupees per mensem, to commence from the 19th November 1852.

Public Department, Extract Minutes of Consultation, 4th October 1853, No. 249.

4. Varadarajoo having died on the 20th November 1863, his pension certificate was afterwards brought to this office by his widow Kanakammah and was forwarded by me to you with my letter of the 27th January 1864, No. 18.

5. Kanakammah was informed by me in answer to her petition that the pension had lapsed according to its terms, and that no further payments could be made upon the certificate.

No. 155. ORDER THEREON, 13th April 1864, No. 518.

Resolved that an application be made to the Government of India for the continuance, to Kanakammah, of two-thirds of the pension drawn by her deceased husband Varadarajoo, with effect from the 20th November last.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

No. 156. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, dated Fort Saint George, 13th April 1864, No. 519.

Adverting to the Resolution of the Government of India in the Financial Department, under date the 16th September 1853, and communicated to this Government in the Home Department, dated the 21st idem, No. 769; I am directed by His Excellency the Governor in Council to solicit the sanction of the Government of India to the continuance of two-thirds of the pension of three Rupees then granted to Varadarajoo, the father of a Police peon killed in the execution of his duty, to the peon's mother who has lately been left, by the death of her husband, and the consequent lapse of the pension, in a state of extreme destitution.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
13th April 1864.

2. The grounds upon which the pension in question was granted to Varadarajoo, viz., that he had been deprived, by the death of his son, of his only means of support, are, I am to observe, equally applicable to his widow. Her name is Kanakammah; and I am to request that the pension of Rupees two, now applied for on her behalf, may be made payable from the 20th November last, the date of her husband's death.

His Excellency the Governor in Council
Fort Saint George

The humble Petition of (Kanakammah)
an inhabitant of Madras

Sheweth

That by leave of your excellency to take the following circumstances of a poor and destitute woman living within the Presidency of Madras under the patronage of your excellency's protection.

The son of your excellency's Petitioner O. Ramaswamy Rajah was formerly in the employment of Madras Police and posted in Chinnamothur Choolam Branch of the 4th Division. That a gang of about eight Robbers having entered on one of the said inhabitant's house within the beat of the said Police Station he boldly attacked them and in performing his duties as a police officer which thousands others of his comrades had not the courage nor the presumption to do he fell a victim to the overbearing mob of Robbers which your poor excellency's Petitioner thinks would no doubt be recorded in the annals of the Police History.

That Mr C. F. Elliot then the Superintendent of Madras Police wisely judging the needs of your Petitioner was Police-magistrate and on the clear understanding that your Petitioner could her husband & - Varatharajulu an infirm old man even with help allowed a pension of 3 Rs per month which was received by your Petitioner's husband up to the 25th of November 1863 - when your poor Petitioner's husband having died
she had made 2 Petitions to the present Commissioner of Police and not yet been favoured with a reply.

That therefore your poor & humble
Petitioner submitting craves your excellency's consideration of the old and helpless state of her to allow that pension for maintenance. For an act of such kindness she would pray as in duty bound.
