Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
15th April 1864.

No. 167. Read the following letter from C. R. PELLY, Esq., Acting Civil and Session Judge of Madura; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madura, 7th April 1864, No. 108.

"The Governor in Council resolves therefore to call upon all Civil and Sessions Judges to furnish a report on the state of the Court Houses in their respective Zillahs in this respect, stating at the same time the nature and probable cost of any improvements that may be required."

With reference to the marginal extract from Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, dated 18th March 1864, No. 893, I have the honor to state that, as far as the Courts at this station are concerned, existing arrangements afford such reasonable security as the nature of the building in which they are held, namely, an old palace, will admit of.

2. The reports I have received from the Judicial officers at out-stations lead to the conclusion that though their Court Houses are not in all cases commodious, they are still secure.
