TELLICHERRY CIVIL COURT,
20th February 1864.

(Signed) A. W. SULLIVAN,
Civil Judge.

No. 170. From A. W. SULLIVAN, Esq., Civil Judge of Tellicherry; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Tellicherry, 16th March 1864, No. 65.

In reply to your Official Memorandum of the 25th ultimo, No. 91, I have the honor to state that the deceased, Thomas Lee, was reported to this Court by the Deputy Collector of Wynnad to have been a British subject.

2. The records of this Court do not show that the Administrator General has declined to take charge of his property, or indeed that any communication was made to that officer on the subject.

3. I imagine that no reference was made by this Court to the Administrator General, owing to the opinion expressed in the concluding paragraph of the Advocate General's opinion appended to Extract from the Minutes of Consultation, Judicial Department, under date 8th December 1855, No. 921.

Referred, together with the Civil Judge's letter of the 20th February last, for the opinion of the Advocate General, as to whether the Civil Judge should not be instructed to report the case to the Administrator General under Section 54, Act VIII of 1855, in order that the latter officer may adopt the course prescribed by Section 43 of the same Act as modified by Section 2, Act XXVI of 1860.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,

No. 171. From J. R. BOYSON, Esq., Government Solicitor, Madras; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 13th April 1864, No. 170.

I have the honor to acknowledge the Order of Government noted in the margin, with its enclosures relative to the course to be pursued for the disposal of certain assets belonging to the estate of the late Thomas Lee, and in deposit with the Civil Court at Tellicherry.

2. I submitted the matter for the consideration of the Advocate General, with whom I have also conferred; and,
3. I now forward a copy of his opinion, and return the order and enclosures above noted.

COPY—OPINION.

I am of opinion that the course suggested, viz., that the Civil Judge be instructed to report the circumstances to the Administrator General, under Section 54, Act VIII of 1855, in that the Administrator General may act according to Section 43, modified by Section 2, Act XXVI of 1860, is the proper one under the circumstances of this case.
