No. 277. Read the following Telegram from RAMANAGOUD NARRAIN ROW. BASUPPAH, Bellary; to the Governor in Council, Madras, dated 26th April 1864.

Great delay in administration of justice in Bellary Court, brought to Governor's notice when here, has increased by Judge's frequent unauthorized and objectionable absence. Gross irregularity in Procedure. Judge went to Ramandroog thrice in course of one month. On two occasions absent for eight days. No report to higher authorities is now in Droog. No record read or hearing held. Number of decrees written in absence are declared at one time in return. Absence will be certified by the Assistant Collector, and irregularities by Sheristadar and Record. Sufferings indescribable. Clients pray for early appointment of able and honest Judges. 26th, 9-20.
