Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 27th April 1864.

Read the following papers :—

No. 286. From Major F. YOUNG, Joint Magistrate of Wellington; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 10th March 1864, No. 64.

I have the honor to request that you will bring to the notice of His Excellency the Governor in Council that the extending to the Coimbatore District of the Rules II, III, IV and V, published under date 26th November last, for giving effect to the provisions of Madras Act No. III of 1863, is at present no boon to the Coffee Planters, &c. in the vicinity of Coonoor, consequent on my jurisdiction as Joint Magistrate only extending to Wellington—Vide Order of Government, dated 13th March 1863, No. 393.

2. The jurisdiction of my predecessor extended to Coonoor; but since my assuming office, consequent on there being but a Sub-Magistrate at Coonoor, whose powers are very limited, breach of contract and criminal cases have almost invariably to be referred to Major Wapshare at Ootacamund; and I need scarcely observe that both my time and inclination admit of the investigation of many more cases than Wellington alone affords, and that it would be conferring a boon on the inhabitants of Coonoor extending my jurisdiction, for it would save them a journey of 10 miles to Ootacamund when cases occurred in which they were concerned.

Referred to the Magistrate of Coimbatore for report.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
15th March 1864.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

No. 287. From P. GRANT, Esq., Magistrate of Coimbatore; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Coimbatore, 6th April 1864, No. 18.

With reference to the letter* of the Joint Magistrate of Wellington, dated 10th ultimo

* Herewith returned.

referred to me for report, I beg to state that I think the extension of Major Young's Magisterial authority to Coonoor will be attended with benefit to the interests of the residents of that station, as his office is near Coonoor, and he has, as he states, not only time but inclination to undertake the extra work.

No. 288. ORDER THEREON, 27th April 1864, No. 599.

The Governor in Council is pleased to direct that Coonoor be included within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Joint Magistrate of Wellington acting under Act IV of 1847.
