Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
16th January 1864.

No. 97. Read the following letter from P. GRANT, Esq., Magistrate of Coimbatore; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Coimbatore, 5th December 1863, No. 85.

In February last the office of Sub-Magistrate of the Town of Coimbatore became vacant in consequence of the former incumbent having been transferred to another appointment, I selected Govindarajooloo Nayadu, Nazir in the Civil and Session Court at Coimbatore, as the fittest person to fill the vacancy. At first he was put in the appointment on probation, and as he conducted his duties to my entire satisfaction he was continued in the office, without an order of confirmation being issued in his favor previous to the 1st May 1863. I consider that the spirit of the Special Test Examination Rules does not bear on Govindarajooloo's case, and propose therefore with the permission of Government to confirm him in his present appointment. Rungiah, the Sub-Magistrate of Annamallai, is in the same position as Govindarajooloo Nayadu, and I propose to confirm him also in his appointment.

No. 98. ORDER THEREON, 16th January 1864, No. 63.

The Governor in Council authorizes the Magistrate of Coimbatore to confirm the two Acting Sub-Magistrates named in the foregoing letter.

2. The Magistrate will be careful, in future, not to appoint unpassed men to any situation for which special tests are prescribed, without previously obtaining the sanction of Government.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.
