I have the honor to submit in original, for the orders of Government, a letter* from the Inspector General of Mofussil Police, No. 834, dated the 20th instant, requesting me to obtain the authority of Government to allow Deputy Inspectors General of Mofussil Police privilege Remittance Transfer Receipts on Mofussil treasuries at par.

2. As a rule privilege Remittance Transfer Receipts on Mofussil treasuries are only granted at a premium of one per cent. But as from the nature of their duties, Deputy Inspectors General of Mofussil Police are required to travel from one District to another and are thus frequently absent from their head quarters, where they may probably require a portion of their salary, as well as in the District in which they may be, I am of opinion that theirs are exceptional cases, and beg to recommend that they may be allowed privilege Remittance Transfer Receipts at par granted by the treasury where they may draw their pay on the treasury of the District in which their head quarters are located:
