Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 30th May 1864.

Read the following papers :—

No. 258. From G. BANBURY, Esq., Acting Magistrate of the Madras District ; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Saidapet, 2nd May 1864, No. 24.

With reference to paragraph 2 of the Order of Government, No. 466 of the 5th ultimo, Judicial Department, I have the honor to state that there are five cats-o-nine tails already in store ; 25 more being required for the use of this office, and for the three Joint Magistrates attached to this District, an indent in duplicate is herewith forwarded for the same on the Principal Commissary of Ordnance.

2. The charge can be met from the sum provided for under "Law and Justice" in the Budget for 1864-65.

No. 259. From G. BANBURY, Esq., Acting Magistrate of Madras District ; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Saidapet, 11th May 1864, No. 27.

In reply to your Memorandum, No. 242 of yesterday's date, I have the honor to state that there are at present attached to this District five* Magistrates exercising full powers, and to each of these officers six cats-o-nine tails have been allotted.

* District Magistrate.
Joint Magistrate of Madras District.
Deputy Magistrate of do.
Joint Magistrate of Saint Thomas' Mount.
Do. of Palaveram.

2. It will save the trouble of again indenting, and also enable the Magistrate to supply the Assistant Magistrates hereafter likely to be nominated, if the number now solicited is furnished to this office.

3. It must be borne in mind that not even the slightest repair nor alteration in these articles can be made except in the Arsenal, and that as Sub-Magistrates under Section 357 of the Code of Criminal Procedure can recommend this punishment in cases triable by themselves, it will often happen that these instruments of chastisement will have to be sent from head quarters in two or three different directions simultaneously.

No. 260. ORDER THEREON, 30th May 1864, No. 778.

His Excellency the Governor in Council sanctions the issue of the (25) twenty-five cats-o-nine tails indented for in the first of the letters recorded above.
