Toppoor...	To be made over to the Police.
Womalur...	To be made over to District Officers.

4. ...ve arrangements, the Board will observe that Government will be at once relieved of the maintenance of six Bungalows, viz.,

Natrumpally, Muttoor, Salem, McDonald's Choultry, Sunkerrydroog, Erramuttoor, and in about six months of ten more.

...served that by the above arrangement, the line of Bungalows from ...re to Sa... ..., and bonâ fide travellers should be allowed all the Bungalows kept up by District Officers. These Bungalows will of course still remain the property of Government, and can be disposed of at any future period as they see fit.

6. With regard to Thalavassal and Kariputty mentioned in paragraph 2 of the Government Order, they are two of a continuous line of Bungalows between Salem and Cudda... ...re ...avellers. From personal inquiries I found that many travellers do not enter their names ... hence there are apparent... ... are.

7. I do not think it necessary to increase the servants in the Bungalows mentioned in paragraph 3 of Government Order, as these Bungalows will be useless to travellers in a few months more. With regard to ... 4 of the Or... Board will observe that I ... included the Salem Bungalow amo... ...ose to be sold.

... the note appended to the Board's letter under reply, it is ordered, "He (Collector) will submit proposals for their (Bungalows) sale on freehold tenure at a fair upset ...is I under... he Board wish the compounds to be sold (along with the Bungalows) at twenty-five years purchase, which in the case of the Natrumpally compound would amount to nearly 300 Rupees, and in that of Muttoor to about 130.
