2. The Session Court by which alone the case is triable being now adjourned, the complainants will have to be detained until it re-opens on the 6th July next. As these people are strangers, and have lost their whole property, besides being detained against their own wish, I have allowed them batta at the rate of 2 Annas a day each, and have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to sanction its payment, and authorize me to continue it until the Session Court re-opens, after which time the batta will be payable by that Court under Section 438 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

No. 27. ORDER THEREON, 2nd June 1864, No. 812.

The Governor in Council observes that there does not appear to be any necessity for the sanction of Government for the charges referred to in this letter, and that they may be properly included in the Magistrate's Contingent bill.
