Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
14*th June* 1864.

No. 124. Read the following letter from W. ELLIOT, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Guntoor; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Guntoor, 4th June 1864, No. 143.

With reference to paragraph 2 of the Government Proceedings, dated 18th March last, No. 393, I have the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that the Court House at this station is in a sufficiently safe condition and does not require any material improvement to render it more secure, but sundry trifles such as links, hasps, and padlocks on the doors and windows seem to be advisable and for which I beg to enclose herein a rough estimate showing the probable cost; and request you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for the disbursal of the amount.

Rough estimate of hasps, &c., required for the Civil and Session Court of Guntoor.
