Abstrac... received ...litary and Cantonment Joint Magistrates to the Circular Memorandum, requesting each of them to furnish a "Statement of the Contingent charges incurred in his office in each month of the year 1863, explaining from what Treasury the amount was drawn, and in what office it was audited."

MILITARY JOINT MAGISTRATES.

Ootacamund.—Major Wapshare states that there is no Military Joint Magistrate at Ootacamund. All the expenses of his office are entered in the office expenditure of the Assistant Collector in the proportion of $\frac{2}{3}$ths to Revenue and $\frac{1}{3}$th to Magisterial Department in the Budget.

Paumben.—Major Syme's Statement shows that, excluding the month of August when, owing to a temporary vacancy, the Paumben office was in charge of the Head Assistant Collector, the Contingent charges for 1863 amounted to Rupees 38-11-2; that payment was made by the "Sea Customs Officer," and audited by the "Treasury Deputy Collector," prisoners' batta, aggregating Rupees 3-3-5, is included.
