Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 15th June 1864.

Read the following papers :—

No. 152. From J. W. CHERRY, Esq., Civil Judge of Salem; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated Salem, 5th April 1864, No. 5.

In reply to paragraph 2 of the Government Order of the 18th ultimo, No. 393, I have the honor to inform you that iron bars have been put to the windows of the record-rooms of the Court-houses at this station and the Court-houses are therefore more secure than they were before.

2. I am, however, still of opinion that these large buildings should not be left without the guard of Constables actually on the spot at night, who were supposed to take the place of the peons when the latter were reduced.

No. 153. From W. ROBINSON, Esq., Inspector General of Police; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 6th June 1864, No. 1178.

General Department.

The Court-houses at Salem are regularly watched by the beat men on duty. The Jail with its guard is at hand, I therefore do not anticipate danger.

2. The Police, as now reduced, could not supply a guard for the Court-house. Some of the Court Peons should, as is usually the case, sleep on the premises.

No. 154. ORDER THEREON, 15th June 1864, No. 885.

Ordered that the foregoing letter from the Inspector General of Police be communicated to the Civil Judge of Salem.

2. The Governor in Council is not prepared to make any change in the present arrangements in regard to guarding Court-houses.
