No. 159. Proceedings of Government, dated 16th June 1864, No. 889.

It being understood that there is now accommodation in the Salem Jail for a considerable number of convicts in excess of the number at present confined in it, the Governor in Council directs that Mr. Rohde will report whether the gang of convicts sent last year from Salem to Madras and confined in the Grand Jail cannot be sent back to Salem. If in the opinion of the Inspector General of Jails there should be no objection to this transfer, Mr. Rohde is authorized to carry it out at once in communication with the Commissioner of Police and the Sheriff.
