No. 188. From F. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Accountant General; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 9th June 1864, No. 45.

Book and Adjustment Department.

Adverting to letter to your address from the Civil and Session Judge of Vizagapatam, dated 23rd ultimo, referred for my report by your endorsement of the 4th instant, I have the honor to inform you that no orders have been recently issued by this office, relative to the Permanent Advance Fund.

2. I am informed that a short time ago Colonel Temple, when Acting Assistant Inspector General of Madras Police, wrote demi-officially to my predecessor, inquiring whether there was any necessity for his furnishing the Civil Judge of Vizagapatam with a guard to protect his Permanent Advance Fund, and observing, at the same time, that if all Judges were to be supplied with guards for the above purpose, the Police would have to be augmented. As the amount for the office Contingencies of the Civil Judge is small, viz., Rupees 100, Colonel Temple was informed also demi-officially that no guard was necessary for the protection thereof.

3. The rule, in respect to the Permanent Advance Fund, has always been that it should be in the possession of the officer who takes it up, it being considered objectionable to place it in charge of the Treasury officer by whom the money is paid. The advance, on disbursement, is at once debited in the accounts against the officer who receives the cash, and is not allowed to be received back in Deposit account by the Treasury officer, to be drawn upon as required from time to time at the convenience of the person to whom the advance has been made.

4. The amount for Office Contingencies can, by very ordinary precautions, be secured by the Civil Judge at Vizagapatam; but the amount allowed for Jail Contingencies is somewhat large, Rupees 1500, and it is in respect to the security of this sum that Mr. Collett would seem to be apprehensive, if kept on the Court premises. It is, however, to be observed that as this last amount has been regulated with reference to the expenditure for two months, the whole sum will seldom, if ever, be in the possession of the Judge, while the half of that amount, or Rupees 750, will probably be the maximum average at any time with him. The Civil Judge might secure the two funds in a suitable cash chest, which could be lodged in his office, and if that is not sufficiently secure, the chest might be lodged in the keeping of the Jailer, so that it may be protected by the Jail guard. The key of the chest must, however, be kept by the Judge himself.
