Extract of a letter from the Chaplain European prison to the Officer in Charge

"I think all of these men are worthy of any indulgence that can be shown as the is especially well behaved and generally so, and very studious and eager to improve himself

Pendergast, D. Gary and Berry though all three with bad characters, seem wiser to have given trouble here. I find them very ready to receive instruction, tho' not of my congregation."
