Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 4th July 1864.

No. 41. Read the following letter from A. COLVIN, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India; to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Simla, 4th June 1864, No. 531.

Home Department.

I am directed to request that it may be stated, for the information of the Governor General in Council, how many prisoners there are now in the prison at Ootacamund, and also what accommodation the building affords.

Referred to the Inspector General of Jails for report.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

There are 36 cells, one of which is now dark, 35 are available for ordinary use, and of these 32 are now occupied. The system is "separate" during lock-up hours; each cell accommodates one prisoner.

(Signed) J. ROHDE,
Inspector General of Jails.
27th June 1864.
