Ty Orders

I would not press Mr Reade to appoint the Petitioner as he seems to have no opinion of him, probably would not give him a fair chance — but I would ask Mr R that first cannot sanction the appointment on the merits of Dorasawmy Pillay and that they ought not to be known at the Collector's Office at Cuddalore to depend until a passed candidate can be found either from Trichinopoly or the adjoining Districts. It cannot make much difference whether the new Office be established now or a few months hence, but it is of much consequence that the orders of Govt in this case should be known
