Kingston 6th July 1805

From Lieut. J. Williamson
Acting Assistant Kingston

To The Honble A. McLean Esquire
Chief Secretary to Government

Sir

Inclosed, we get leave to lay before Government for publication in the Gazette of the Province, under the Kingston Government, and for the Kingston Magistrates of the provisions of Act XX of 1805. (The Kingston Act) for which Act we have been honored with addresses from the Inhabitants, & which will be found obliged by your adopting some measure to bring the same to the notice of Government & applying for the benefit of the publication of the Act to the Kingston Province.

Act XX of 1803 empowers Attorneys & Advocates pleading in any Court in British India other than the Supreme Court to the Rules of Practice observed by the High Court. after it shall appear, that Advocates & Vakeels & Attorneys duly to appear plead & act in any of the Courts, in their respective capacities:-

There is one capital Statute called Lalor's Act XL of 1853, & one Act XX of 1865 which have been passed & would be better that all doubts on the matter should be set at rest, for it may happen that if the Act is not extended one Judge in the Supreme Court may take the Execution & one pleasantness in case of failure may take place.

I have the honor &c.

Sir

Your obed Servt

H Macklore
