Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 22nd July 1865.

No. 146. Read the following letter from J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Ootacamund, 14th July 1865, No. 95.

In reference to the Order of Government, 24th April 1865, I have the honor to state that the services of pensioned 1st Dresser Chinniah were dispensed with on the 15th May last, having been rendered from the 26th March.

2. Mr. Pelly, in a letter of the 29th April, claimed for 2nd Dresser M. Appavoo, No. 514, and 2nd Dresser Ramrajoo, No. 531, attached to the Revenue Survey and Settlement Departments, extra remuneration at the rate of four Annas each a day, their services having been made available to the camp from the 27th March to the 23rd April.

Enclosed.

3. I had laid the application aside, not knowing at the time how the claim could be supported, and subsequently the matter escaped my memory.

4. I would now beg to bring the recommendation to the favorable notice of the Government.

From C. R. PELLY, Esq., Officer in charge of the Jail, Nellore, to J. ROHDE, Esq., Inspector General of Jails, Ootacamund; dated Nellore, 29th April 1865, No. 11.

I have the honor to forward, herewith, for your favorable consideration, copy of a letter received from the Zillah Surgeon, relative to extra remuneration, at the rate of 4 Annas per diem, from 27th March to 23rd April for 2nd Dressers M. Appavoo and Ramrajoo, attached to the Revenue Settlement and Revenue Survey Departments of this District.

2. The Proceedings of Government of the 24th instant, No. 614, dispose of such portion of the application as has reference to Pensioned Dresser Chinniah, whose services will have to be retained until the breaking up of the camp.

3. That the assistance of the above two Dressers was absolutely necessary is sufficiently evident from the number of admissions into Hospital, as shewn in the margin. The additional remuneration applied for amounts in the aggregate to but a small sum; and C. S. Ramasawmy, 2nd Dresser, Jail Hospital, now at the Camp, is unquestionably put to extra expense by his having to reside at a distance of somewhat over five miles from the town.

From H. ADAM, Esq., Zillah Surgeon, Nellore, to C. R. PELLY, Esq., Officer in charge of the Jail, Nellore; dated Nellore, 27th April 1865, No. 95.

When, with your permission, I was allowed to avail myself of the services of other Dressers not attached to the Jail establishment, during the late most severe epidemic of cholera, I must, before leaving the station, bring their most praiseworthy conduct to your notice, with the hope that they may be considered worthy of some recompense for the services they rendered.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
22nd July 1865.

2. On the 26th of March, when the number of cases in Hospital had so rapidly, and continued so largely to increase, I was thankful in being permitted to engage the services of Pensioned 1st Dresser Chinniah a resident of Nellore. From a knowledge of the number of sick you will not be surprised that more help was required; and when there was more work on the hands of the Jail Dresser and Chinniah, who assisted him, than they were well able to perform, I was emergently required to seek the services of 2nd Dresser M. Appavoo, No. 514, and 2nd Dresser Ramrajoo, No. 531, from the Officers in charge of the Revenue Settlement and Revenue Survey Departments.

3. I have only to express to you with the utmost gratification the high satisfaction these men have given me in so efficiently assisting in those arduous duties they have had to perform. With the Jail Dresser, whose conduct is worthy of all praise, they have been on duty night and day; they have all been unremitting in their attention to the sick; and their kindness to them has been most marked.

4. And I have the honor to request I may be permitted to recommend that, as recompense to them for the services they have so efficiently rendered, the full pay of his pensioned rank, viz., at 35 Rupees per month, be allowed to Pensioned 1st Dresser Chinniah, from 26th March till the prisoners' return from camp; to second Dressers M. Appavoo and Ramrajoo batta at four Annas a day be issued from the 27th March till the 23rd of April, and to C. S. Ramasawmy, 2nd Dresser, Jail Hospital, the same batta from the 5th, the date on which the prisoners went into camp, until their return to Jail again.

No. 147. ORDER THEREON, 22nd July 1865, No. 1018.

His Excellency the Governor in Council sanctions the payment to the two 2nd Dressers M. Appavoo and Ramarajoo of the extra remuneration of (4) four Annas per diem, from the 27th March to the 23rd April last, for the services rendered by them during the late out-break of cholera in the Jail at Nellore.
