Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

25th July 1865.

No. 182. Read the following letter from P. P. HUTCHINS, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 12th July 1865, No. 51.

I am directed by the High Court to furnish, for such notice as may appear proper to His Excellency the Governor in Council, a copy of a letter from Mr. Hodgson, the Civil and Session Judge of Guntoor, reporting his return to his station a week later than the day appointed for the re-opening of his Court. The original enclosures of the letter are also forwarded.

2. The excuses offered by the Civil Judge appear to the Court very unsatisfactory.

From W. HODGSON, Esq., Civil and Session Judge of Guntoor, to P. P. HUTCHINS, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras; dated Guntoor, 26th June 1865, No. 17.

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Honorable the Chief Justice and the Judges, that I returned to my station at about midnight on the 24th instant, and re-opened the Civil and Session Court this day.

2. In explanation of my having failed to re-join my station by the appointed time, viz., 19th June, I have the honor to state that it was my intention to have proceeded from Madras by the Cashmere, if she could be induced to touch at Masulipatam, and to that end, I placed myself in communication with Messrs. Biony & Co., the Agents of the British India Steam Navigation Company. Their reply, dated 7th June, is enclosed, fixing the 12th June for the departure of the Cashmere.

3. Late in the afternoon of the 10th, Saturday, I received the accompanying telegram, which left me the option of proceeding by the Cashmere on Monday the 12th, or taking my chance by the Orissa advertised to sail on the 20th instant. As I could not get my things together in time for Saturday's train from Bangalore, and was not certain that Sunday night's train would enable me to catch the Cashmere the following day, if she should leave on the morning (though as it turned out she did not leave Madras till the 13th), I elected to take my chance of a passage by the Orissa leaving on the 20th June.

4. I represented the matter personally to His Excellency the Governor and to the Chief Secretary to Government, and was told that the disposal of my case rested with the Honorable the Judges of the High Court, and the Civil Paymaster.

5. I had an interview with the latter while I was in Madras, and he informed me that he would have no occasion to notice my over-staying the adjournment, unless it were brought officially before him by the High Court, and I trust, therefore, the Judges will be pleased to overlook my omission to re-join in time.

Registrar, Appellate Side.

No. 183. ORDER THEREON, 25th July 1865, No. 1036.

His Excellency the Governor in Council concurs with the Honorable the Judges of the High Court in considering the excuses offered by Mr. Hodgson, for having delayed to return to his station for six days after the day appointed for the re-opening of his Court after the adjournment, to be very unsatisfactory. It appears that Mr. Hodgson had notice on the 8th of June that the Cashmere, which was to sail for the Northern Ports on the 12th of that month, would touch at Masulipatam, in the event of his paying an extra charge for his passage. Subsequently, on the evening of the 10th, he was informed that he could go in the Cashmere, without incurring any extra charge.

2. The Governor in Council resolves to direct that the whole of Mr. Hodgson's salary, for the six days for which he was absent from his station without leave, be retrenched.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 4th instant we have to inform you that to save you from disappointment we are advertising the Cashmere to travel at Bangalore at the same time we beg to let you know that it is a rule that no steamer touches at an additional Port unless she earns Rs 500 freight we request therefore you will inform us whether in the event of not obtaining sufficient cargo to make up a freight of Rs 500 you will be prepared to make good the deficiency...

We remain

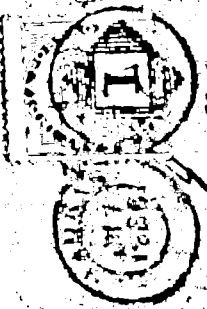

Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Wm. J. H. Burns.

Previous letter had stated that this would be steamed on 15th instant.

The Cashmere is expected back on the 12th.
