North Arcot

Collector's Kachery

Chittoor 18th July 1865

From J. D. Robinson Esqr

Magistrate of North Arcot

To The Honorable A. J. Arbuthnot

Chief Secretary to Govt

Fort St George

Sir,

One Venkatarayudu, a resident of the Narainumanum Division in the Canetenuggen Zemindary, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a knife. The man being too dangerously injured to be sent across country to the Hospital at Chittoor, the Sub Magistrate, in the exercise of what to me appears a wise discretion, forwarded the sufferer to Arconum for treatment by a medical practitioner attached to the Railway Company at that Station.

2 I the apothecary has submitted to me through the District Engineer of the 1st Division, a bill amounting to Rs 15 for professional attendance and the services of a man to wait upon the sufferer. The sum being in excess of the amount prescribed in Government order 29 March 1865 No 486 Judicial Department, I have the honor to request that the sanction of Government may be accorded to the payment of the amount of the Bill to the apothecary as a special case.

I have the honor to be
