No. 5207, 2nd Class.

2. To admit of the satisfactory disposal of questions of this description hereafter, Government consider it desirable that they should have before them such brief statement of the circumstances of each case as must be available either in the Court which tries and punishes the accused, or in that to which, under the Code of Criminal Procedure, the "Calendar" is submitted. For the future, therefore, the Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 28th July 1865.

Superintendent of Pensions will communicate direct with the Court which may pass sentence on pensioners involving partial or complete forfeiture of pension, or in the case of conviction by a Sub-Magistrate, with the Magistrate of the District, in view to the contemplated information being afforded. The necessary orders will, accordingly, be passed in the Judicial Department, to ensure compliance with the requisitions of the Superintendent on this head.
