No. 13. Read the following letter from C. DALE, Esq., Government Pleader, Madras, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 18th July 1865, No. 119.

In the year 1861, an appeal to Her Majesty in Council against a decree of the late Sudder Court, regarding the Poliput of Irœsœccœnaicknore was ordered.

Order of Government, 25th January 1861, No. 181, Revenue Department.

2. For securing the eventual costs of the Respondent, I lodged with the Registrar of the Sudder Udalut a Government Promissory Note for Rupees 4000.

3. In the same year, Government sanctioned an appeal to Her Majesty in Council against the decree of the Sudder Udalut, in respect of the Zemindary of Vissunnapett.

Order of Government, 5th April 1861, No. 759, Revenue Department.

4. And for securing the eventual costs of the Respondent in that suit, I lodged with the Registrar of the Sudder Udalut, six Government Promissory Notes aggregating Rupees 4000.

5 Both those appeals have been disposed of, and at the request of the Accountant General, I have obtained from the High Court two orders for the delivery to me of those seven Notes.

6. The Bank of Madras claims a sum of Rupees 20 on the withdrawal of those Notes, and I do myself the honor of enclosing a copy of a letter addressed to me by the Accountant General on the subject.

7. I also do myself the honor of enclosing a bill for Rupees 20, the amount so claimed by the Bank of Madras, and of soliciting that an order may be passed sanctioning payment of the same.

From F. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Accountant General, Madras, to C. DALE, Esq., Government Pleader, Madras; dated Fort Saint George, 17th July 1865, No. 1235.

Book and Adjustment Department.

With reference to your letter of the 12th instant, No. 116, I have the honor to request that you will receive and return to me the six Promissory Notes amounting to Rupees 4000 therein alluded to.

2. A bill for fees charged by the Bank of Madras, on the return of the said Notes, should be submitted by you for the sanction of Government. A similar course was adopted on a former occasion, as you will observe by reference to your letter of 22nd July 1862, No. 103, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, communicated to me with Government Order, dated 5th August 1862, No. 1663, Revenue Department.

No. 14. ORDER THEREON, 2nd August 1865, No. 1073.

The Governor in Council sanctions the payment of the Bank charge incurred by the Government Pleader, as reported in the foregoing letter.
