Mootoosawmy Pillay, 2nd Class Acting Sub-Magistrate of Ootacamund, has applied for a month's privilege leave, to enable him to study for the Special Test examination, for which he is required to appear, under the Government Order of the 12th September 1864, No. 1678. With a view to provide for the performance of his duties during his absence, I propose to permit Madukarai Veneutaramaniah, Taluq Sheristadar of Neilgherry, to temporarily exercise the powers of a 2nd Class Sub-Magistrate, and request, with reference to the Government Order of the 12th instant, No. 970, that the requisite powers may be conferred on him by a Notification in the Fort Saint George Gazette. The Tahsildar has much to do, and cannot be expected to undertake the duties of Mootoosawmy Pillay.
