Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 9th August 1865.

No. 72. Read the following letter from P. P. HUTCHINS, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 29th July 1865, No. 52.

With reference to the correspondence noted in the margin, I am directed by the Judges of the High Court to annex, for the consideration of Government, a copy of a letter, dated 15th instant, from the Judge of the Small Cause Court of Negapatam.

To Government, 8th April 1865, No. 36.
From do. 8th June „ „ 824.

2. The Judge, it will be seen, solicits an increase to his establishment, similar to that already allowed to the Small Cause Court of Combaconum. As the work and establishments of the two Courts are in all respects similar, except that Mr. Cross has the additional duties of a Justice of the Peace, it is unnecessary for me to say more than that the Judges support the application, and that the work of the Small Cause Court in 1864, as compared with that of the Principal Sudder Ameen of Tranquebar, was as follows:—

Small Cause Court of Negapatam.	{ Original Suits.....	40
	{ Appeals.....	6
	{ Small Causes.....	1,125
Principal Sudder Ameen of Tranquebar.	{ Original Suits.....	93
	{ Appeals.....	232
	{ Small Causes.....	235
	{ Criminal trials.....	37

Mr. Cross does not appear to have commenced work in his capacity of Principal Sudder Ameen until the middle of 1864.

3. The usual tabular statement is enclosed.

From M. CROSS, Esq., Judge of the Court of Small Causes, Negapatam, to P. P. HUTCHINS, Esq., Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras; dated Negapatam, 15th July 1865, No. 207.

Pressure of work on the establishment of this Court necessitates my submitting, for the recommendation of the Honorable the Judges, that I be permitted to secure the services of two English writers.

2. This Court has three writers less than that of the Principal Sudder Ameen of Tranquebar, and I believe the returns will show that the work of this Court is not less than the Tranquebar Court.

3. If the Honorable the Judges are pleased to recommend, and the Government to sanction, this increase, I conclude that they would desire to keep the pay of the establishments of the Courts of Small Causes uniform, thus according the same allowances for these additional writers, Rupees 22 and Rupees 17-8-0, as Government have recently sanctioned for the Combaconum Small Cause Court.
