Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 12th August 1865.

Read the following papers:—

No. 86. From Major C. H. DRURY, Acting Controller of Military Accounts, to Colonel H. MARSHALL, Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort Saint George; dated 9th June 1865, E.

I have the honor to forward a letter from the Superintendent of Pensions, dated 23rd May 1865, No. 276, requesting the orders of Government regarding the case of pensioned Havildar Futtey Homed, No. 10097 of 2nd Class, who draws a pension of Rupees 7, and has been entertained in the Police Force as a first Class Constable, on Rupees 7.

2. It is presumed, with reference to the orders in the Judicial Department, as per margin, quoted in Proceedings of Government dated 18th May 1865, No. 1859, that it is not intended that any deduction should be made from the receipts of a pensioner in such cases.

No. 1240, dated 7th October 1861.
„ 869, „ 4th June 1864.
„ 1116, „ 23rd July 1861.

From Major J. MICHAEL, Acting Superintendent of Pensions, to Colonel H. MARSHALL, Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort Saint George; dated Fort Saint George, 23rd May 1865, No. 276.

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that Havildar Futtey Homed, No. 10097 of 2nd Class, drawing a pension of Rupees 7 per mensem, has been entertained in the Police Force as a first Class Constable, on Rupees 7.

2. The orders of Government are solicited on this and future similar cases, agreeably to paragraph 71, page 20, of the revised Pension Regulations.

Referred, with letter No. 276 of 1865, to the Judicial Department, with advertence to paragraph 158, page 269, of the Pay Code.

FORT SAINT GEORGE, 12*th June* 1865. (Signed) R. HAMILTON, Lieut. Colonel, Under Secretary to Government.

Referred to the Inspector General of Police.

FORT SAINT GEORGE, 21*st June* 1865. (Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary.

No. 87. From Captain M. W. CARR, Assistant Inspector General of Police, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 14th July 1865, No. 1369.

With reference to the correspondence as per margin, referred to the Inspector General of Police, I have the honor, in the absence of Mr. Robinson, to report that half Police pay, in addition to his Pension, appears to be a fair remuneration, for the performance of Police duties, to a Military pensioner drawing a pension of Rupees 7, and serving in the Police as a 1st Class Constable.

Letter from Acting Superintendent of Pensions, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated 23rd May 1865, No. 276.
Letter from the Acting Controller of Military Accounts, dated 9th June 1865, E.

2. The case of pensioned Havildar Futtey Homed is exceptional. All other pensioned Havildars now in the Force, have been found qualified for the higher grade of Head Constable (pay Rupees 20); sanction for the payment of full Civil salary, in addition to pension, to some of these men, has been granted under Government Order, No. 1240, of 7th October 1861.

H. Lieut.

No. 88. From W. ROBINSON, Esq., Inspector General of Police, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Kotagherry, 31st July 1865, No. 1523.

With reference to Captain Carr's letter, dated 14th instant, I beg to state that I quite coincide in the view taken by him.

2. The pensioner in question is a 1st Class Constable, drawing 7 Rupees. With full pension, he would draw 14 Rupees per mensem as a Constable, which I do not think necessary or desirable; in fact he would draw considerably more than the Deputy Head Constable who would command him.

3. All other pensioned Havildars entertained in the Police Service who draw their full pension, have been promoted to Head or Deputy Head Constables. Should this man be found, on full trial, fit for promotion, or if, after some years' service, he is recommended as quite worthy of the high pay to which his Police wages and pension together would amount, I will again recommend his case to Government for favorable consideration. In the meantime, half pension may fairly be saved to the State.

No. 89. ORDER THEREON, 12th August 1865, No. 1119.

The Governor in Council sanctions the grant to pensioned Havildar Futtey Homed of one-half of his salary as Head Constable of Police, in addition to his Military pension.
