Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

16th August 1865.

No. 131. Read the following letter from Captain A. F. F. BLOOMFIELD, Acting Judge of the Court of Cantonment Small Causes of Trichinopoly; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Trichinopoly, 26th July 1865, No. 9.

I have the honor, with reference to the copy of the accompanying communication* from the Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras, to request you will be so good as to let me know what amount of Saderward has been sanctioned for this Court.

* Dated 22nd July 1865.

From T. WILKINS, Esq., Deputy Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, Appellate Side; to Captain A. F. F. BLOOMFIELD, Acting Judge of the Court of Small Causes at Trichinopoly, dated Madras, 22nd July 1865.

I have the honor to return your Stationery Indent for the year 1865-66, and to request you to certify at the foot of it the number of persons borne on your Court's establishment for whom the Stationery is required.

2. In re-transmitting the Indent you will also be pleased to forward duplicate and triplicate copies thereof in accordance with the Circular letter of the late Sudder Udalut, dated the 21st November 1818.

3. I am also desired to state, that as the High Court are not aware what amount of Saderward has been sanctioned for the Cantonment Small Cause Courts you should address the Government direct on the subject.

(True Copy.)
(Signed) A. F. F. BLOOMFIELD, Captain,
Acting Judge.

No. 132. ORDER THEREON, 16th August 1865, No. 1139.

The Governor in Council considers that as Captain Bloomfield, for the discharge of his two-fold duties as Joint Magistrate and Judge of the Court of Cantonment Small Causes, has but one office and one establishment, a separate contingent allowance for him in his capacity of Judge of Small Causes is unnecessary.

2. In the Order of Government, No. 882 of the 15th June 1864, Rupees 50 annually was allotted as contingent allowance for Cantonment Joint Magistrates, and this sum may be applied to any expenses incurred for contingencies by Captain Bloomfield in either capacity. Should it prove insufficient, the Government will be prepared to grant an additional amount, but the whole charge will still be entered as belonging to the Joint Magistrate's office, and be provided for accordingly in the Budget Estimates.
