Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 16th August 1865.

No. 142. Read the following letter from the Honorable D. ARBUTHNOTT, Magistrate of Salem, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Salem, 1st August 1865, No. 24.

With reference to Section 390 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, I have the honor to request you will inform me where the accused person should be kept in custody.

2. The accused Jaddaya Kistna Chari, a Brahmin of Kistnagiri, was charged under Section 352 of the Indian Penal Code and sentenced to five days simple imprisonment by the Kistnagiri Sub-Magistrate. On the 5th day the accused effected his escape from the custody of the Police, and was therefore charged under Section 224 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. During the inquiry before the Joint Magistrate it was found that the accused person was of unsound mind. The Joint Magistrate stayed proceedings and released the accused on bail given by the relatives of the accused who were willing to take proper care of him and produce him when required.

4. These securities appeared again before the Joint Magistrate on the 30th May last and requested to be discharged from being securities.

5. No other person being willing to give security, the accused is now kept in the Zillah Jail.

No. 143. ORDER THEREON, 16th August 1865, No. 1145.

The Governor in Council authorizes the Magistrate to deal with the Lunatic in question under Section 4, Act XXXVI of 1858.
