No. 592. Memorandum from the Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department :—

(Here enter 16th August 1865, No. 324.)

From E. W. BIRD, Esq., Civil Judge of Tanjore, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated Tanjore, 1st August 1865, No. 471.

SIR,

1. In returning the Superintending Engineer's letter of the 18th ultimo, No. 584, and its enclosures, forwarded to me with your docket of the 28th idem, I have the honor to report that the verandah for the Manargudi Moonsiff's Court House therein mentioned, is required to afford accommodation for the Establishment of that Court.

2. The building consists, at present, of three rooms, in one of which, 24 feet in length by 12 broad, the Moonsiff holds his Court. The other two are 9 and 12 feet long and 12 broad respectively, and the space in these is taken up by the Cash Chest and Records. On the southern side of the building is a verandah, 55 feet long, which is the only place where the Gumastahs, Ameens, and Peons of his Court can sit and do their work.

3. The Moonsiff, in reporting the necessity for repairing the building in February last, brought to notice the great inconvenience he felt from the want of sufficient accommodation, and

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, therefore requested that a verandah of the same dimensions as the one on the south side might be erected on the north. I accordingly requested Captain Oakes to have an estimate prepared for the addition in question, and sent up for sanction, as I considered the same really needed.
