Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
6th September 1865.

No. 63. Proceedings of Government, dated 6th September 1865, No. 1262.

Adverting to the intimation conveyed in the Proceedings of Government, under date the 16th May last, to the effect that every Cantonment Magistrate would be required to pass an examination in those branches of the law which he is called upon to administer, His Excellency the Governor in Council directs that it be notified to the several Cantonment Magistrates that the examination will embrace the following subjects:—

The Law of Evidence, as treated in Mr. Kindersley's Work.

IV 1855
The Military Cantonment Act, and the Rules and Regulations which may be passed under its provisions.

Act XI of 1865, for the establishment of Courts of Small Causes.

The Indian Penal Code.

Those parts of the Code of Criminal Procedure which relate to the duties and powers of Magistrates.

2. Each Cantonment Magistrate, when under examination, will be allowed to have access to his books, the object being to ascertain that the Officer has a sufficient acquaintance with the Law which he has to administer, to enable him to perform his duties in a satisfactory manner, with the aid of those helps which are available to him when actually engaged in the trial of cases.

3. Every Cantonment Magistrate is expected to provide himself with the following works:—

Norton's Law of Evidence.

Archbold's Pleadings and Evidence in Criminal Cases.

Chitty on Contracts.

Roscoe's Evidence in Civil Cases.

Collett's Law of Torts.

The first examination will be held on, or after, the 15th September 1866, under the orders of the Board of Examiners.
