Not to be folded or roughly handled

No. 128. Read the following letter from E. C. BAYLEY, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Simla, the 17th August 1865, No. 1158.

Home Department.

I am directed to forward to you, for information and guidance, the accompanying copy of the correspondence noted in the margin, from which it will be seen that the Governor General in Council has allowed certain of the prisoners at Port Blair the indulgence of sending for their relations from India; and I am to request that, if the persons named in the 13th column of the accompanying Return are within the degree of relationship recommended in my letter to the Chief Commissioner, British Burmah, No. 1156, dated 17th instant, and should be willing to proceed to that Settlement, the necessary arrangements may be made for sending them.

From Chief Commissioner, British Burmah, No. 140, dated 7th April.
To Chief Commissioner, British Burmah, No. 1156, dated 17th instant.

2. It will further be observed that the Chief Commissioner of British Burmah has been requested to instruct the convicts to write to their families on this subject, and to send the letters written by them to the several Local Governments and Administrations, for the purpose of being delivered through the District Authorities. On the receipt of these letters, it is requested that measures may be taken for their immediate delivery to the parties concerned, whose wishes, as to going or not going to Port Blair, can then be ascertained.

3. A similar communication has been made to the Governments of Bengal, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab, and to the Chief Commissioners of Oudh and the Central Provinces.

4. It is desirable that none of those sent should arrive at Port Blair before the month of November next, and that no unnecessary expense should be incurred in sending them.

From Lieutenant-Colonel A. P. PHAYRE, C. B., Chief Commissioner of British Burmah, and Agent to the Governor General, to E. C. BAYLEY, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India; dated Port Blair, 7th April 1865, No. 140 P. B.

With reference to your letter, No. 4902, dated the 6th of October last, I have the honor to submit, in original, letter, No. 117, dated 25th of February 1865, from the Superintendent of Port Blair, relative to the wives or other near relatives of transported convicts being allowed to join their husbands at Port Blair. Major Ford has also enclosed three lists marked A, B, and C, of those convicts whose families he recommends should be allowed to join them.

2. As a general rule, Major Ford proposes that a convict shall serve three years at Port Blair before he shall be allowed to send for his family, and then only in case he shall have been well behaved. I beg to support this proposition.

3. I understand from the letter under reply that His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General in Council directs that none but a life-convict shall, as a general rule, be allowed to apply for his family to be sent to him; but that, in special cases, convicts under sentence for a term of years may be permitted to do so. Acting on this view, Major Ford has included some term-of-years convicts in his list; but these form a small proportion.

4. List marked A contains the names of convicts from the Bengal Presidency. There are 46 in all. Of these, all but five are under sentence of transportation for life. Of the five term-of-years convicts, two are under sentence for 20 years, two for 16, and one for 17 years. The two for 20 years may almost be viewed as being under sentence for life, and the three others are exceptional cases. The lists marked B and C contain names of life-prisoners only from the Madras and Bombay Presidencies.

5. I trust that the information afforded regarding each prisoner, in the lists sent, will be all that is required.

6. On the general question of allowing the families of convicts who have behaved well to have the option of coming to Port Blair, I think that, on several grounds, it is desirable to allow the indulgence. In the first place, I consider that the Settlement will not, on the whole, be thereby deprived of its essential penal character; whilst the great object of gradually establishing self-supporting convict cultivators, who shall raise produce for the supply of food to the great body of the convicts, and supply workmen and artificers generally, will be gradually attained. This, there can be no doubt, will eventually diminish the expense of the Settlement. Already the number of self-supporting convicts in the Settlement amounts to 313 males and 148 females, who are no expense whatever to Government. Indeed each pays a fee of one Rupee a month for the privilege. It may also be right to mention that the continued forced existence of so many males together must lead to depraved practices, which the proposed measure would materially check. On the whole, therefore, I beg to recommend that His Excellency the Governor General in Council may be pleased to allow the families of the convicts now entered in the lists to proceed to Port Blair, provided the relation to the convict applied for be that of wife, husband, or child. A set of rules will be framed, showing the proposed manner of dealing with these convicts and their families, which will be submitted hereafter. As the South-West monsoon is now near at hand, it would of course be desirable that none of these families should reach Port Blair earlier than November 1865.

From Major B. FORD, Superintendent of Port Blair, to Major H. N. DAVIES, Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of British Burmah; dated 25th February 1865, No. 117.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 03967A., dated 1st November 1864, with which you forward me copy of Home Secretary's letter, No. 4902, dated 6th October last, by whose directions you call for precise information regarding the prisoners whose families, it is recommended, should join their husbands at Port Blair. I have now the honor to forward enclosed lists* of certain selected life and exceptional term-convicts to whom the option has been given of sending for their families, and who accept the offer.

* Marked A, B, and C.

2. In preparing these lists I have carefully borne in mind the principles that His Excellency the Governor General in Council has desired that I should keep in view, and which are described in Clauses B and C of paragraph 3 of the Home Secretary's letter above quoted. I have been somewhat in doubt as to the difference of meaning (setting one expression against the other) intended to be conveyed by the words "convict sentenced for a term of years" and "an "exceptional term-convict," not being quite certain as to what number of years sentence to transportation constitutes a "term-of-years convict" and an "exceptional term-convict;" and having consulted such authorities as I have at my disposal, viz., Act XXIV of 1855, and "Beaufort's Digest of Criminal Law," and not finding therein any definition of the terms, I have, in framing my lists, assumed that any convict sentenced to transportation up to 14 years is inadmissible thereto, and that all convicts whose sentences exceed the period of 14 years are qualified, if recommended, for this indulgence. Should I have been in error, the names of those to whom it is not the intention of Government to allow the privilege of sending for their families can be easily struck out.

3. With regard to life-convicts, and those who I assume to be exceptional term-convicts, for whom it is directed that some period of servitude should be fixed, at the end of which they may be permitted to send for their families, I beg to report that I have fixed a period of three years' servitude. I have fixed this period as I find that convicts, who have been three years in this Settlement, have already been allowed by Government, when recommended, to send for their families hither: I find that there are some who have been allowed the same privilege within 18 months of their arrival at the Settlement; but I do not recommend so great a privilege after so brief a period of transportation.

4. It will be observed that I have only recommended those convicts for the indulgence of being permitted to send for their families who have been well behaved here.

5. The full particulars required in Mr. Bayley's paragraph 4 are, it will be observed, afforded in the lists now submitted.

6. I take note that the scale of allowances proposed by me for the families of convicts, on arrival at this Settlement, has been approved of by the Government.

From E. C. BAYLEY, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India; to Lieutenant Colonel A. P. PHAYRE, C. B., Chief Commissioner of British Burmah; dated Simla, 17th August 1865, No. 1156.

Home Department.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 140 P. B., dated the 7th April, forwarding a letter from the Superintendent of Port Blair, with three lists of convicts whose families he recommends should be allowed to join them.

2. In reply I am to inform you that, excepting two of the prisoners named in the list marked A, the Governor General in Council grants the indulgence recommended by you, in each case in which the relation applied for is wife, husband, or child. Instructions will be issued accordingly to the several Local Governments and Administrations within whose jurisdiction the persons who are required to proceed to Port Blair are living, and in these instructions your desire, that none of those sent should reach the Settlement earlier than November next, will be noted.

3. It is essential, however, that the convicts named in the lists should themselves write to their families, as a letter from them will be the best means of inducing their families to proceed to Port Blair. Such letters should be sent by yourself to each Local Government or Administration, for the purpose of being delivered through the District authorities.

4. The two prisoners excepted above are those named on the margin, regarding whom further information is necessary. Their offences are said to be escaping from Jail (under Act V of 1858); but under recent orders, they ought to have been released, unless they are specially dangerous characters, which should have been stated in the report. Inquiry will also be made as to these men from the Local Governments.

List A.
No. 17, Ghasee.
„ 45, Bundoo Koormee.

5. The general rule proposed by Major Ford, that a convict shall serve at least three years at Port Blair before he shall be allowed to send for his family, is approved by the Governor General in Council.

No. 129. ORDER THEREON, 12th September 1865, No. 1298.

Copy furnished to the Inspector General of Jails for information.

2. It is observed that only one of the prisoners specified in the list was sent from a District now forming part of the Madras Presidency.
