Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,

18th September 1865.

No. 183. Read the following letter from Lieutenant Colonel W. J. WILSON, Acting Inspector General of Jails, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Bangalore, 5th September 1865, No. 250.

With reference to the 2nd paragraph of the Order of Government noted in the margin, I have the honor to report that seven Police Officers were tried before the District Magistrate of Salem, on the Judicial Department, 29th August 1865, No. 1193.

20th May 1865, for negligence, under the provisions of Section 223 of the Indian Penal Code.

2. The 1st prisoner, a Deputy Constable named Mahtab Khan, who was in charge at the time of the escape, was convicted and fined in the sum of twenty-five Rupees. Two of the prisoners were pronounced to be wholly free from blame; and the remaining four were also acquitted, as they were entirely under the orders of the 1st prisoner, and were not responsible for having been improperly posted by him.

No. 194. ORDER THEREON, 18th September 1865, No. 1335.

To be recorded.
