Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
19th September 1865.

Read the following papers:—

No. 791. From Colonel W. K. WORSTER, Barrack Master, Presidency, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated 8th September 1865, No. 788.

In returning the accompanying Indent, I have the honor to state that I have personally examined the furniture at the Town Police office, and also inquired as to the necessity for the supply of the additional articles entered therein, and am of opinion that the requisition is just and necessary to meet the wants of the office.

Enclosures 2.

No. 795. From Colonel W. K. WORSTER, Barrack Master, Presidency, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated 18th September 1865, No. 831.

With reference to my letter of the 8th September 1865, No. 788, I have the honor to suggest that, as there will be spare benches from the Fort Church, consequent on the supply of new furniture to the Church, two of these benches may be substituted for twelve Arm Chairs of the 24 indented for, for the Town Police. I believe also a box of the description required is now available, and may be issued in lieu of a new one.
