No. 221. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department; Simla, dated Fort Saint George, 20th September 1865, No. 1351.

In acknowledging the receipt of Mr. Under Secretary Howell's letter of the 18th July last, No. 220, I am directed to state, for the information of the Government of India, that Police Officers are, in this Presidency, appointed as probationers, subject to their passing the prescribed examination within a period of 18 months, and that the subjects which have hitherto formed the departmental test are detailed in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Order of this Government, dated 27th June 1862, No. 1011, a copy of which is enclosed for reference.

2. As, however, only five Officers have as yet passed the legal branch of the test, which is now considered by the Inspector to demand more time and study than the hard-worked Officers of the Force can be expected to devote to it, that branch of the examination has been recently revised. A copy of the revised test will be found in the enclosed Proceedings of the Government, under date the 6th instant, No. 1261.
