No. 275. Read the following letter from J. R. KINDERSLEY, Esq., Session Judge, Rajahmundry, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Rajahmundry, 15th September 1865, No. 30.

I have the honor to inform you that a letter has been received here from the Session Judge of Cuddapah, stating that 200 prisoners had left that station on the 5th instant, for the Central Jail at Rajahmundry. They are expected here about the 29th instant; and it is understood that other prisoners are to be sent here from other stations.

2. But no one here has any orders to take charge of the Central Jail, which is still in the hands of the Department Public Works, nor to receive the prisoners. There is no Jailer, and there are no Warders, nor has any one any authority to engage any.

3. It does not appear that the charge of a Central Jail devolves on the Session Judge by operation of law, and it seems absolutely necessary that some one should be specially appointed.

4. I have the honor to request the favor of a reply by telegraph.

No. 276. ORDER THEREON, 22nd September 1865, No. 1375.

Ordered that the following Telegram be despatched to the Session Judge, Rajahmundry :—

"Assume charge of Central Jail till further orders, and arrange for reception of about 400 prisoners."

"Further orders will follow by post."
